Academic Complexes

The Academic complex comprises of the north academic complex, North Spine (NS), south academic complex and South Spine (SS). Most schools and lecture theatres are located at SS and NS.

In NTU, classes are primarily split into Lectures, Tutorials and Lab Sessions.

Lectures are usually held in Lecture Theatres (LT) and can usually range from 1 to 3 hours.

Tutorials are teaching sessions in smaller ‘tutorial groups’ that start from week 2 that usually involve assignments or readings to be done. These are usually held in Tutorial Rooms (TRs) and are generally 1-2 hours. Where lectures may be more on listening and note taking, tutorials are where questions are clarified.

Courses may also have Laboratory Sessions, which may be held outdoors or in Labs that are generally located within the faculty buildings. These are generally 3 hours per session and involve more hands on approach.

Prepping for school, getting to know the campus and most importantly ORIENTATION PROGRAMS!

Faculty Orientations

Faculty Orientations are geared towards understanding faculty specific information and getting students equipped with the essentials on how to navigate academic landscapes whilst creating a sense of community and support network within faculties.

Club Orientations

Club Orientations consist of orientation programmes organised by the four clubs namely the Union Orientation Committee (UOC) under NTUSU, Cultural Activities Club (CAC), Welfare Services Club (WSC) and Sports Club. Each of them represent various student organisations under them and the vibrancy of activities within NTU.

Hall Orientations

Hall Orientations are primarily for incoming residents to get accustomed to their new environment by creating a support network amongst the residents as well to showcase the myriad of to-dos and activities that Hall Residences offer.
NTUSU hosts Welcome Week during the first week of classes where NTU student clubs and societies set up booths to share information about their activities, recruit new members and kick-off their year of activities.

Feel free to approach seniors and find out more about what the different clubs do! You may just find something that's your cup of tea.

Virtual Welcome Week

This year, we are going virtual! Check out the virtual booths here from 11th to 14th August!
So what’s in store for you on the first week of school?

The first official week of school usually begins after the orientation programmes come to a close, beginning usually with introduction lectures for the courses that you are registered in.

Tutorials only begin on the second week of school to allow students to get used to the pace of lectures and for Lecturers to introduce the course outlines and essential information that students should take note of. The first lectures are also important in finding out information such as announcements.
